Dear Parents,

Date: September 2018

As part of our topic on the Egyptians this term I have organised a company called History off the Page to visit the class on Thursday 15th November 2018.

The children will learn about different aspects of the ancient Egyptian civilisation in a fun and interactive way. The children serve as workers and slaves finishing the construction of the city. They complete important tasks in ancient Egyptian culture, including embalming, tomb painting and amulet making, among others. The afternoon features an Egyptian "banquet"

We would like the children to dress up in Egyptian costume costumes for the day.

Costumes need not be complicated – we suggest the following "homemade" alternatives:

- Boys: A white T-shirt and white shorts with a belt, cord or sash around the waist; sandals.
- Girls: A simple white shift made from a sheet; sandals.

The cost of the day is £15 per child and we ask for a voluntary contribution of this amount. Please return the slip below along with the money to the school office by Wednesday 1st November 2018.

Many thanks

Mrs James
